OF THE CITY OF NORTHAMPTON

Rules Governing Meetings

1. PRECEDENCE OF RULES. The City Council Meetings shall conform to parliamentary practices as set forth in the Rules and Orders of the City Council. The procedures defined in the most current version of Robert's Rules of Order will serve in all instances not covered by the Council Rules and Orders.

2. QUORUM. The presence of 5 members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The affirmative vote, taken by roll call, of 6 members shall be required to adopt an appropriation order or transfer. The affirmative vote, taken by roll call, of 6 members shall be required to adopt zoning ordinance. In the absence of statutory requirements providing otherwise, the affirmative vote, taken by roll call, of 5 members shall be required to adopt any other ordinance. In the absence of statutory requirements providing otherwise, an affirmative vote of a majority of a quorum shall pass any other measure.

3. SUSPENSION OF COUNCIL RULES. Suspension of these rules or any part thereof shall require a two-thirds majority of the quorum present.

4. REPEAL OR AMENDMENT OF RULES. City Council Rules and Orders may only be repealed or amended with prior notification of no less than three business days and require a two-thirds majority vote of quorum present.

5. RECOGNITION OF MAYOR. The Mayor is recognized at all Council Meetings.

Duties of the Presiding Officer

6. DUTIES OF THE PRESIDING OFFICER. The Council President shall act as presiding officer of the City Council at every meeting. The duties as presiding officer shall be only those set forth herein:

1. To open the meeting at the appointed time by taking the chair, calling the meeting to order, and ascertaining that a quorum is present;
2. To announce in proper sequence the business that comes before the City Council;
3. To recognize members who are entitled to the floor;
4. To state and to put to vote all questions that legitimately come before the assembly as motions or that otherwise arise in the course of proceedings (except questions that relate to the presiding officer as noted below), and to announce the result of each vote or, if a motion that is not in order is made, to rule it out of order; or, to refuse to recognize obviously frivolous or dilatory motions; (Dilatory Motions are defined in Robert's Rules, Chapter VI, Section 13, pages 164 & 165; and in Chapter X, Section 39, pages 331 & 332).
5. To expedite business in every way compatible with the rights of all members of the body;
6. To respond to inquiries of City Councilors relating to parliamentary procedure or factual information bearing on the business of the City Council;
7. To declare the meeting adjourned when the City Council so votes or, where applicable, at the time prescribed in the order of business, or at any time in the event of a sudden emergency affecting the safety of those present.
8. The Presiding Officer may state facts, ask questions and give opinions during debate without relinquishing the chair.

7. ORDER OF SUCCESSION OF PRESIDING OFFICER. In the case of a vacancy or in the absence of the Council President, the Council Vice-President shall preside and shall retain voting privileges. At a duly called meeting of the City Council when neither the Council President nor the Council Vice-President are present, the City Council shall elect by majority vote, a President pro-tempore, who shall preside for that meeting and shall retain voting privileges. Should the City Council fail to elect a President pro-tempore in accordance with the preceding sentence, the meeting shall be adjourned.

Council President

8. COUNCIL PRESIDENT ELECTION AND DUTIES. At any meeting when a City Council President is to be elected, the last Council President will preside. If the last Council President is no longer a member of the Council, the longest serving member of the Council will preside. If two members of the Council are equal in seniority, a coin toss will determine which Councilor presides over the election of the Council President. If more than two members of the Council are equal in seniority they will draw lots to determine which Councilor will preside over the election of the Council President. After nominations are made by members of the Council, candidates may present to the council. The duties of the Council President will include all duties pursuant to the charter and also:

1. Duty to assign councilors to serve on any committee on which City Councilors will serve.

9. COUNCIL VICE-PRESIDENT ELECTION AND DUTIES. At any meeting when a City Council Vice-President is to be elected, and after nominations are made by members of the Council, candidates may present to the council. - B. The Mayor may submit agenda items to the Council President who shall place them on the agenda of the next City Council meeting.

14. TWO-READINGS RULE. Every measure shall have two separate readings on two separate days. When the measure shall have passed two readings, it shall be signed by the clerk and signed by the Enrollment Committee. After having passed two readings, each order, joint resolution or ordinance shall be presented to the Mayor for approval.

15. CONDUCT. All conduct at City Council meetings shall be civil and respectful including Councilors, those addressing the Council and members of the public.

16. PUBLIC COMMENT. Individual members of the public shall be permitted to address the Council and all Council Committees on any matter for a period of three minutes. This period may be extended or reduced at the discretion of the presiding officer. Individuals wishing to speak will be recognized by the presiding officer and must state their name and address to the clerk. The presiding officer shall rule out of order during the public comment session any remarks that clearly constitute defamation, with due regard for the distinction between elected officials and city employees who are public figures and those city employees who are not public figures. The presiding officer may order any member of the public who breaks this rule to cease speaking and may preclude any such member of the public from future meetings of the City Council. Councilors will not respond to any comments from the public.

17. NEW BUSINESS.

21. CHARTER OBJECTION. On the first occasion that the question on adoption of a measure is put to the City Council, if a single member present objects to the taking of the vote, the vote shall be postponed until the next meeting of the City Council, whether regular or special. If 2 members present object, such postponement shall be until next regular meeting. If it is an emergency measure at least 4 members must object. This procedure shall not be used more than once for any specific matter notwithstanding an amendment to the original matter. A charter objection shall have the privilege over all motions but must be raised prior to or at the call for a vote by the presiding officer and all debate shall cease. (CHARTER 2-9C)
